Indonesian
Coconut Pancakes

INGREDIENTS

Pancake Sheets

- 250 gr or 2 cups of all purpose flour
- Pinch of salt
- 2 eggs
- 300 ml coconut milk
- ± 300 ml water
- Few drops of pandan paste or green food colouring

Filling

- 250 gr finely grated coconut (desiccated coconut in the baking section will suffice if you can't get fresh coconut and grate it)
- 150 gr palm sugar (or 100 gr castor sugar)
- 100 ml water
- 2 tablespoons cinnamon
- Pinch of salt
- Pandan leaves (optional)

METHOD

Pancake Sheets

Put about a tablespoon of the filling in the middle of the pancake and spread it a little with the back of the spoon. Flip the bottom of the pancake over the mixture before folding each side of the pancake in like a tortilla. Continue to roll it. Enjoy with some lime squeezed over the pancake, or even better, a scoop of ice cream!

PREPARATION

1. To make pancake batter combine flour, salt, eggs, and coconut milk then mix
2. Add water while stirring until the batter has a thin consistency. Exactly how much water varies depending on whether you used coconut milk or coconut cream (which is thicker)
3. Beat the batter to remove lumps
4. Add a few drops of pandan paste or green food colouring
5. To make the filling combine the coconut, sugar, salt, cinnamon and water in a pot on the stove. Add torn up pandan leaves to the mixture if you have
6. Mix continuously on a medium heat for about 5 minutes, or until water has evaporated and the mixture is moist (not dry)
7. Do not let the mixture burn
8. Remove from heat and remove the pandan leaves. Set aside
9. Put some butter in a heated pan on the stove spread it around the pan
10. Spoon some batter into the centre of the pan and spread it to the edges by swirling your wrist
11. Flip after a minute, or when there are bubbles on the pancake and it has cooked through
12. Put pancake on a plate when cooked
