A FINE FEAST

Get ready to be pampered to the hilt at Maya Ubud Resort & Spa, which boasts an array of stellar dining options executed to high standards.

Tucked away in an inconspicuous spot between Ubud’s rice terraces and the meandering Petanu River is Maya Ubud Resort & Spa. Over at this world-class resort, guests can look forward to a plethora of dining options, from traditional Balinese cuisine to wholesome creations.

Look no further than the resort’s signature restaurant, Maya Sari, for a taste of international and local favourites. While at Asiatique, gourmets can enjoy speciality dishes from around the region, as well as an authentic teppanyaki experience. Available at both restaurants and guaranteed to be a crowd-pleaser is the Tuna Sashimi Sambal Matah, where fresh slices of yellowfin tuna are marinated in a piquant salsa of lemongrass, kaffir and shallot, and accompanied with a side of lime-chilli ice.

A hit among health-conscious guests is The River Café. Following the principles behind the Slow Food movement, the café champions the use of fresh organic vegetables and herbs sourced from their own organic garden. Savour signature dishes such as the crispy skin salmon fillet, served with chickpea and spinach fritters, radish, watercress and pipián verde.

Planning a romantic dinner? Opt for the Romance at Maya package and entrust your evening to the dedicated service crew. Escape to a private candlelit wooden deck surrounded by tropical flowers, where a personal waiter attends to your every need. The food doesn’t disappoint too, with mouth-watering eats such as pork medallions and crispy skin belly in Balinese spices, as well as a dessert of passion fruit parfait encased in a Valrhona white chocolate ball, and topped with hot dark chocolate sauce and coconut crumbs.

Ensuring consistent quality across each restaurant is area food and beverage director and executive chef Kath Townsend, who has worked in some of Sydney’s top restaurants and first-class resorts in South East Asia and the Maldives.
